Content

- 1) Introduction.
- 2) Gender sensitive teachers in PJN College.
- 3) Gender sensitive programmes in our college.
- 4) Gender balance among students and teachers.
- 5) Conclusion

1) Introduction

Late Baburaoji Kale had realized the importance of education in rural, hilly and urban area. Education for everyone because the mission of this life. With this vision the established Ajintha Education Society in Aurangabad on 06/07/1970. Ajintha Education society started Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru Mahavidyalaya in Aurangabad on 15/06/1971.

The objective of Ajintha Education Society can well be stated in Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru's Message on the first day of Independence – “ We have hard works ahead there is no resting for anyone of us till we freedom our pledge in full, till we make all the people of India what destiny intended to them to be. We are citizens of a great country on the verge of bold advance and we have to live up to whatever religion we may belong are equality the children of India. With equal rights, privileges and obligations we con not encourage communication or narrow mindness, for no nation can be great whose people are narrow in thought or in action.”

With this Nehru's vision Late Baburaoji Kale has established Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru Mahavidhyalaya, Aurangabad. Our college is marching towards the progress and trying to fufill the dreams of Nehru and Late Baburaoji kale.

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru College is affiliated to Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad and is approved under 2(f) and 12(b) of the University Grants Commission (UGC) act.

Our Vision
